

A website concept for Helga's Custom Alterations

An independent design proposal: how your website could look on a desktop screen and on a phone.

- "Book a fitting" and your phone number one tap away on a phone
- Your family's story from Stuttgart to Arlington, told like an archive with pinned photographs
- A red thread that stitches itself through the page as visitors scroll, past your bridal and formal wear services

This is a design preview, not a live replacement for your current site. Texts, history and photos come from your current website and would be confirmed with you before anything goes live. Some smaller photos were upscaled for this preview.

HELGA'S HISTORY

A SEAMSTRESS'S DAUGHTER from Stuttgart.

STUTTGART, GERMANY

Helga, one of triplets, was born to Gerdrut Bader, one of Stuttgart's noted Schneiderinnen, a woman with a degree in tailoring. When Helga and her sister Trudy were not at school, they were busy with their chores and being taught the trade by their mother.

1981

Helga opens Helga's Custom Alterations in Arlington on Park Row Drive: prom, wedding and special occasion dresses, plus tuxedo rentals run by her husband Larry, once one half of the Lindstrom Bros. magic act in Las Vegas. Later come uniform alterations for fire departments across the Metroplex.

HELGA, FOUNDER

1993

Her daughter-in-law Cindy joins and helps the business grow: corporate accounts, among them a premier national bridal shop, and specialty clients from AT&T Stadium Concierge Suite Services to Martin High School's choir and band.

TODAY

After 22 years, Helga sold the business to Cindy. Come in today and you may still meet Helga, hear a story or two and benefit from her experience. The focus now: bridal and formal wear for women.
