

Peck Architects

An independent website concept

A considered digital home for your architecture.

A clearer way into the work.

The concept pairs Peck's Lewisville work with a warm editorial layout and a moving project showcase.

- Projects in motion

A horizontal portfolio lets selected work lead the story.

- Local context

Old Town Lewisville and the firm's own project imagery anchor the opening.

- Clear next step

A prominent project inquiry link and contact details keep the path simple.
